Day 1 - Montreal → Whale Watching in Baie-Sainte-Catherine → L’Isle-aux-Coudres

Depart early from Montreal and travel east along the scenic St. Lawrence River, passing through picturesque countryside toward the Charlevoix region, one of Quebec’s most cherished natural gems. By midday, arrive at Baie-Sainte-Catherine, one of the top three whale-watching destinations in the world. Board a 3-hour whale-watching cruise, where you may have the chance to spot blue whales, minke whales, and right whales, some weighing over 130 tons. Optinal $

In the evening, head to the charming island of L’Isle-aux-Coudres, famous for its colorful fall foliage, scenic biking paths, and peaceful riverfront. Visit the historic water-powered flour mill, still in use after over 200 years, and take a stroll under the “hazel tree that predicts the weather.” Stay overnight in a cozy island hotel.

Day 2 - L’Isle-aux-Coudres → Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré Basilica → Canyon Sainte-Anne → Huron-Wendat Cultural Village → Montreal

Start your day with breakfast on the island before departing for one of North America’s three great Catholic pilgrimage sites—the Basilica of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré. Admire its majestic neo-Gothic architecture and peaceful surroundings.

Next, venture into the breathtaking Canyon Sainte-Anne, where rushing waterfalls cascade between dramatic cliffs. Cross a series of suspension bridges, the highest soaring 243 feet (74 meters) above the canyon floor. Experience the thrill of nature as you take in the crystal-clear waters, lush forests, and panoramic views.

In the afternoon, visit the Huron-Wendat Cultural Village, a National Historic Site of Canada. Learn about the customs, stories, and traditions of the Huron-Wendat Nation through immersive exhibits and reconstructed dwellings.

Depart around 5:00 PM and arrive back in Montreal around 8:30 PM, concluding this unforgettable Charlevoix getaway.
